

Application to visit Australia for medical treatment

(Class UB Medical Treatment)

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Who should use this form?

Use this form to apply for a visa to visit Australia for medical treatment or to accompany someone who is seeking medical treatment.

You may be eligible for a medical treatment visa if:

- you have made arrangements to undergo medical treatment (including organ transplant or organ donation) or consultations in Australia, including arrangements for payment;
- you do not have a condition which could be a threat to public health in Australia;
- no Australian citizen or permanent resident will be disadvantaged by your treatment or consultation; and
- you have enough funds to support yourself and any accompanying persons during your visit.

or

you are a citizen of Papua New Guinea living in the Western Province and are to be medically evacuated to a hospital in Queensland;

you are accompanying one of the above people.

Note: Medical Treatment visas are not available for the purposes of surrogate motherhood.

Additional information on obtaining a visa for medical treatment in Australia is available on form 984i Visiting Australia for medical treatment. Form 984i is available from any office of the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) in Australia, Australian missions overseas or from the department's website www.immi.gov.au

Types of medical treatment visas

Medical treatment visas are generally valid for the period of treatment only.

You can apply for the following types of visa using this form:

SUBCLASS 675

Visa valid for stay of up to 3 months.

No application charge.

SUBCLASS 685

Visa valid for stay of more than 3 months.

A non-refundable Visa Application Charge must be paid.

Who can you include in this application?

Only one passport-holder can apply on one form. You can include in your application any children on your passport who will be travelling with you.

Children under 18 years of age, travelling without one or both of their legal guardians, require authorisation from the non-accompanying guardian(s) to travel to Australia.

Additional information

You may have to fill out more forms or obtain certain reports or documents to include with your application.

Part H Application checklist at the end of this form tells you which documents you must provide.

The Australian mission will tell you if any other form or requirements are needed.

How to apply

Step 1

Make sure you have a passport which is valid for your period of stay in Australia.

Note: If you already have a visa for travel to Australia and you are granted another one, the first visa will cease.

Do not attempt to use a visa granted for another purpose for a stay in Australia in which medical treatment is intended.

Step 2

Please read the Conditions for a visitor to Australia on the next page. You must be willing to abide by these conditions while in Australia.

Step 3

Complete the attached form.

You must provide the address at which you intend to live while your application is being dealt with. Failure to give a residential address will result in your application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

You must answer all questions honestly and completely. False or misleading information may lead to refusal or cancellation of your visa, or penalties while in Australia.

A travel agent or other representative may help you fill out the form, but you must sign it. If unable to sign, a parent or guardian may sign on your behalf.

Step 4

Make sure you provide any attachments required, particularly your passport.

If required, you must attach details of:

- criminal history and other occurrences (see Question 23 in the application form); and/or
- results of medical examination and/or a chest x-ray.

Step 5

Include documents as listed at Part H Application checklist.

Step 6

Lodge your application form, your passport and attachments at the nearest Australian mission.

Your application may be lodged personally or by your representative, or sent by mail.

If you send in your application by mail, include a self-addressed pre-paid envelope for the secure return of your passport.

Step 7

If you sent in your passport for evidence of the visa, check that all the people travelling on it are covered by the visa. You should also check the details and conditions on your visa label, or on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa, carefully.

Step 8

Before you travel, anyone accompanying you is advised to take out health insurance. Where there is a reciprocal health care arrangement between Australia and their country of citizenship they may want to take this into consideration when deciding their health insurance requirements.

Visa Application Charge

Payment must accompany your application and is generally not refunded if the application is unsuccessful. To check the Visa Application Charge, see form 990i Charges available from the Forms section of the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/990i.htm or check with the nearest office of the department.

Method of payment

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office where you intend to lodge your application as to what methods of payment and currencies they can accept and to whom the payment should be made payable.

Health and character

Medical treatment visitors must be of good character, and not subject to any restrictions on travel to Australia.

Anyone accompanying a person who will undergo medical treatment in Australia must be in good health.

Part B Character, Part C Health and Part G Declaration on the application form ask you to make a declaration about the health and character of yourself and any children included in your application.

If there is a change to what you declare at Part B Character or Part C Health before you travel, you should inform the Australian mission overseas. This will help avoid any problems when you arrive in Australia.

On arrival in Australia, all travellers must make a declaration of their tuberculosis status and declare whether they are of good character.

Conditions for a visitor to Australia

Visitors to Australia must be willing and able to abide by the conditions listed below, while in Australia.

If you are unable or unwilling to abide by these conditions, you should not apply for a visa. Failure to abide by the conditions may lead to cancellation of your visa and other penalties.

If you have any questions or concerns about the conditions, you should ask for more information from the Australian mission.

Conditions

You may NOT undertake employment or business activities while in Australia.

You may NOT undertake study of more than 3 months duration while in Australia.

You may be asked by the Australian mission to undergo a medical examination and/or to provide a chest x-ray.

Your bona-fides as a visitor will need to be assessed by the visa officer. You must have reasonably substantiated arrangements and intentions to return to your country of residence following your treatment.

There may be other conditions depending on the reasons for your visit. These conditions will be shown on your visa.

About the information you give

The department is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-Citizens'. Information will be used for assessing your eligibility for a visa and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act.

The information on this form, including the results of tests for Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), will be used to assess your health for an Australian visa. A positive HIV or other test result will not necessarily lead to a visa being denied. Your result(s) may be disclosed to the relevant Commonwealth, state and territory health agencies.

Relevant information about you will be disclosed to federal, state and territory police to assist in your location and possible detention in the event that you become an unlawful non-citizen. You will become an unlawful non-citizen if your visa ceases (by cancellation for breach of visa condition for example) or expires and you do not hold another visa authorising you to remain in Australia.

The department has authority under the Migration Act 1958 to collect a range of personal identifiers from non-citizens, including visa applicants, in certain circumstances. For more detailed information you should read information form 1243i Your personal identifying information, which is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au

The information provided might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, review of decisions and registration of migration agents.

Information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from the department's offices, gives details of agencies to which your information might also be disclosed.

Options for receiving written communications

You may authorise another person to receive all communications, both written and electronic, about your application with the department. You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To do this you will need to complete Part E Options for receiving written communications and form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient. For an explanation of what a migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient can do please read the relevant sections on page 3.

To change or end the appointment of your migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient you must promptly advise the department in writing. You can do this by using form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

An authorised recipient is someone you appoint to receive written communications about your application with the department.

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Exempt agents

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, child, adopted child, parent, brother or sister);
- a sponsor or nominator for this visa application;
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Further information on migration agents

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) website www.themara.com.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.immi.gov.au

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.
